

Students have the option to enroll in the direct deposit of their financial aid refund to their personal checking or savings bank account. Benefits include:

- A faster, more convenient way to get your refund!
- Students quickly and easily enroll by providing a valid checking or savings account. Banking information is validated in realtime, which leads to faster processing and deposit of your refund!
- No more waiting in long lines!
- No more worrying about checks getting lost in the mail!

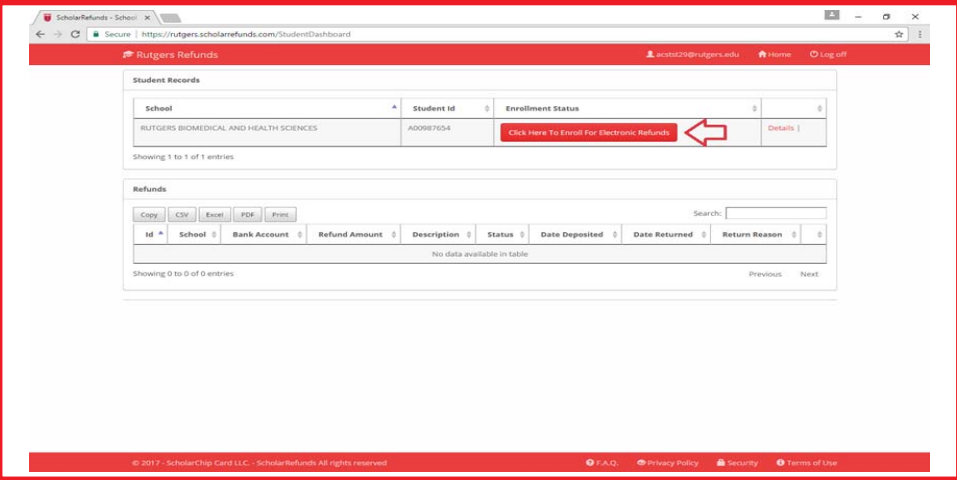

STEPS FOR ELECTRONIC ENROLLMENT

1. Enroll/login by clicking on the "Rutgers NetId Login" button at <https://rutgers.scholarrefunds.com/>.

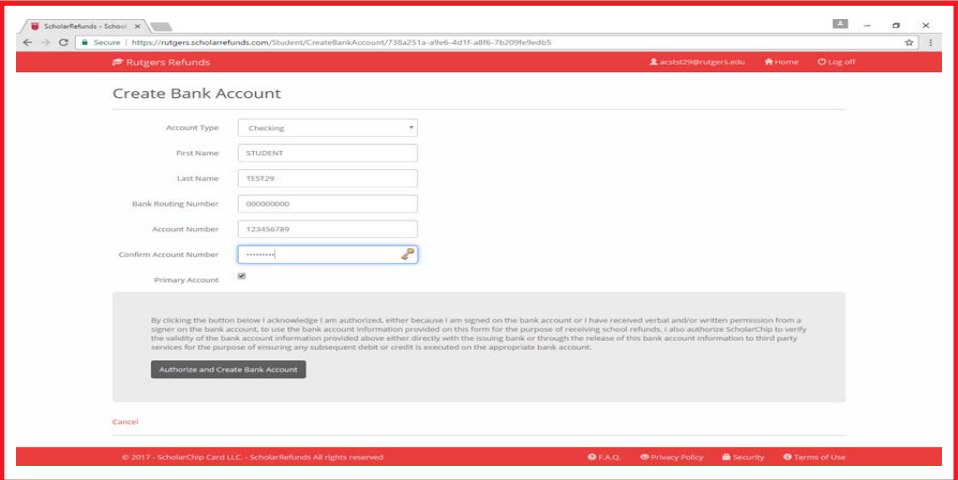

2. Enter your NetId and Password.

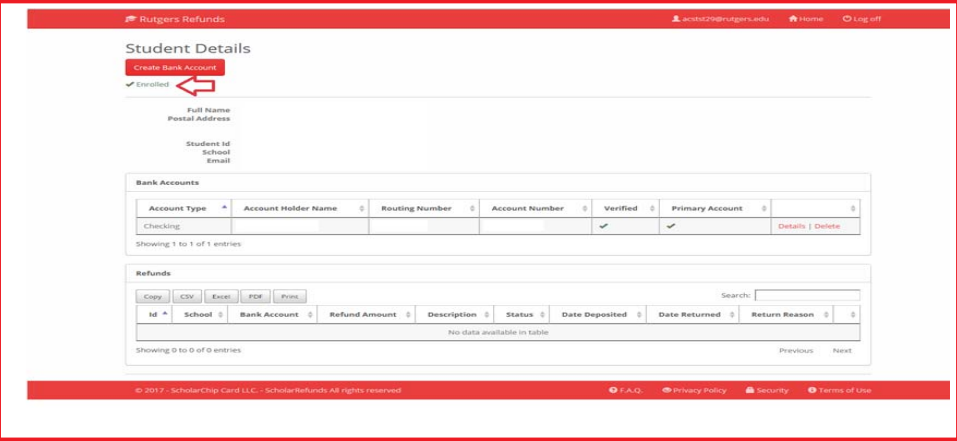

3. Click the "Click Here To Enroll For Electronic Refunds" button to begin your enrollment. If you enrolled previously and would like to update your banking information, click on the "Details" link.

4. Enter the checking or savings bank account information you would like to receive refunds at. NOTE: This should not be debit or credit card information.

5. After creating the bank account you are now enrolled to receive electronic refunds. Your enrollment information will be exported to your school and they will then be able to issue future refunds to your account.

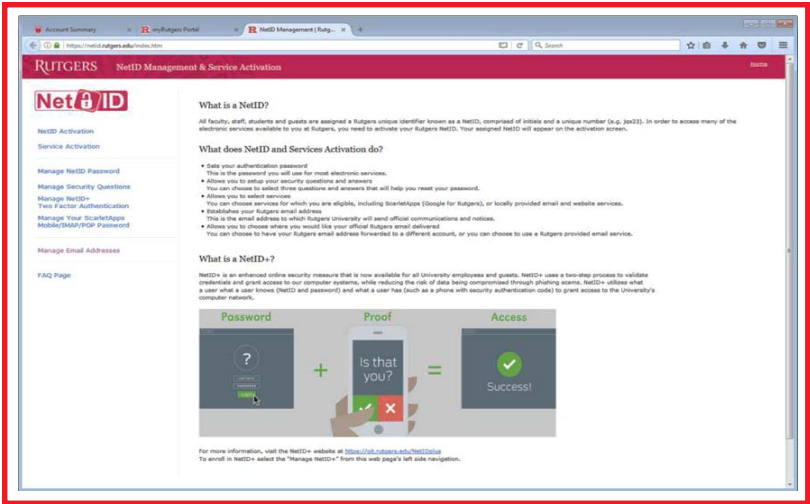

COMMON LOGIN ISSUES

If you are receiving a message that says "Your account is not authorized to use this service", then you need to update the official RU Student E-mail address on file. Please complete the steps outlined below. When done, please try logging in again.

CHANGING/UPDATING OFFICIAL RUTGERS STUDENT EMAIL

1. Go to <https://netid.rutgers.edu>.

2. Click on "Manage Email Addresses".

3. Enter your NetId and Password.

4. Update your "Official Rutgers Email Address" to your netid@rutgers.edu, then submit request.